Central Indiana Amateur Radio Association (CIARA)

- Joe March, K9JM, EMA is offering a technician course. They are also recruiting new members for the Comm Group.
- John Gooldy, KJ9M, stated that all the repeaters are working.
- Field Day – Saturday June 17th
 - The Soccer Club field was not available this year. We will be going to Forest Park. This time it is a first come first serve event. We will have someone go to the park at the crack of dawn to obtain a shelter location. The park opens at 5:00 AM. At that time, we will let you know where we are by radio on the Noblesville Repeaters. You can bring your own radios and antennas. We will participate on Saturday only and we cannot stayover night. We will be having a cookout with hamburgers and hot dogs.
 - Dallas Milen, N9DAM, stated that the Club's website crashed. He set Claude AI to the task of fixing the website. Claude fixed the website and after several suggestions, the AI program modernized the site. The calendar will be same as in Facebook. There is now repeater information on the website (n9eoc.org).
 - Mike Hume, KD9BKU, is looking to get a speaker to give an APRS presentation later on in the year.
 - The EMA year end party location has not been established. The county sites do not seem to be available currently. Monica Peterson, N9MRP, will be investigating a new site.
 - There was a discussion on Meshtastic. Matt Camacho, KE9EJF, gave a presentation on Meshtastic.
 - Next meeting will be in August.
- Next year we need a team to organize Field Day early in the year and arrange for a place.
- The meeting was adjourned at 9:20 AM.
